

THE WEATHER FORECAST.

Rain and warmer to-day; partly cloudy to-morrow.

Highest temperature yesterday, 38; lowest, 26. Detailed weather, mail and marine reports on page 19

VOL. LXXXIII.—NO. 152.

NEW YORK, SUNDAY, JANUARY 30, 1916 .- Copyright, 1916, by the Sun Printing and Publishing Association.

94 PAGES.

PRICE FIVE CENTS.

BRANDEIS MAY WIN, BUT LONG

Senate Poll 2 to 1 in His Favor in Case of Early Vote.

RACIAL ISSUE IS ALREADY INJECTED

Telegram From "Southern Gentile Democrats" Attacks Nomination.

tions to-day were that the nomination of Louis D. Brandels to be an Associate ely to be held in the committee and the nomination could be considered and disposed of freed from racial isare and politics it-would be rejected. hat is freely admitted, but already the race issue has been injected into the egram was received to-day at the Senate as follows:

We protest to the end and resent zorously the appointment of the Jew to the United States Supreme Court We American gentiles feel and will no longer support the Where he gained one Jew lose 10,000 gentiles. It is a SOUTHERN GENTILE DEMOCRATS.

ugh not signed by an individual who have been objecting to Mr. Brandeis's homination on grounds entirely removed from the race issue at once saw the possibilities of the case ominee is known to be a radical selleyed to be of a temperament not the judicial determination estions. The Senators who Brandels do so not because Jew, but for the same reason that ciate Justice Lamar.

sub-committee will probably include Chil-ton and O'Gorman, or Fletcher, who are probably favorable to confirmation.

ABGUSTA SPECIAL—1:08 P. M. DAILY.
Mken and Augusta. Drawing and stateroom sleeping cars. Compartment car daily to Augusta. Dining car service. N. Y. Office, 254 Fifth Ave.—Adv.

Secret Charges in Senate Assail Brandeis's Honor

FIGHT IS SURE His Professional Conduct in United Shoe Machinery and Other Cases May Be Formally Attacked-A Pamphlet Criticising Him Is Distributed.

SENATOR REED ONCE HIS BITTER CRITIC

Washington, Jan. 29.—The greatest fear that the friends of Louis D. Brandels have, so far as the fight over the deis have, so far as the fight over the confirmation of his nomination is con-cerned, is caused by the threat that Brandeis helped organize the United Sho charges involving his professional con-duct will be formally brought in the Senate.

Machinery Company. Prior to 1899 he was director of the MacKay Shoe Ma-chinery Company, one of the non-com-the charges will be brought, thus necessitating a hearing and long delay Some Senators have been made acquainted with these charges. At least one member of the Judiciary Committee firmation until they were explained.

Some of the charges have been laid before Senators in pamphlet form. They were made before Brandels's name was even considered for a judicial place United Shoe Machinery Company, for lations with the W. L. Douglas Compan; with the Lenox case, at Lynn, Mass., and with the Warren will case have been mentioned as grounds for possible complaint against Mr. Brandels, The Boston lawyer's friends here say these charges are old and have long ago been discredited. It was recalled to-day that at the time the anti-trust bills were under consideration in the Senate, Sena-tor Reed of Missouri made an attack on Mr. Brandeis as the result of the lat-ter's professional service to the United page 15.992, volume 51; Senator Reed (Democrat, Missouri); Machinery Company (addressing Sena- whether Mr. Branuels devised Weeks of Massachusetts), 'Does the means of meeting the statute of Massachusetts.'

The Colloguy in the Senate.

Senator Weeks: "I presume there was more than one attorney engaged in doing it. One of the attorneys, who was for a long time a director of the company, and who, I have understood, drew pany, and who, I have understood, drew tor know at what time Mr. Brandeis the once beautiful valley, now a muddy waste, they were met by a party of refugees who had given up all hope of refugees who h the leases which have been in operation had an immediate effect. Senator Reed: "That is Louis D.

icases which the shoe company used and which they are using to-day, substantially as they were originally drawn."

chinery company, and he has publicly attacked the laws which he is supposed to have had a very potent hand in drawing.

on the Judiciary requested the in the suit against the shoe machinery by-tieneral to-day to forward a trust, and therefore I conclude he must be familiar with that litigation. I want default with that litigation. I want described the last represented those who have been very active in attacking the Shoe Machinery company, particularly Charles of the best ways a been realized. the Supreme bench. The reply, it is understood, will throw no official light on the situation, as it is said there are no aritten inderstoonents on file in behalf of Mr. Brandels.

There was a report to-day that Attorher was a report to-day that Attor-ney-General Gregory verbally indorsed Mr. Brandeis when the President sug-tested that he had the Boston lawyer gested that he had the Boston lawyer peting concerns from which our company Company, and one of its legal advisers and as a lawyer he helped to draft the leases he now denounces. Assuming that he felt then as he feels now—that the director of a company occupies a fiduciary relation to its stockholders—he must have believed himself responsible for the character of our leases, even if he had not helped to draw them; yet throughout his association with our company he never criticised them, and in 1906 he appeared before the Massain 1906 he appeared before the Massachusetts Legislature to defend the very methods which he now attacks.' And later in that letter Mr. Coolidge says, speaking of an opinion by him (Brandels) to Charles H. Jones, his client—this is the quotation: 'The lease being invalid he cannot be liable for failure to per-

Senator Reed: "I wish to ask, after he Massachusetts Legislature passed the plan to escupe the effect of that the following colloquy, which occurred a moment ago, and under which the time in the Senate debate, may be found in the Congressional Record on age 15,992, volume 51:

Senator Reed (Democrat, Missouri): "The Senator spoke about the organtout all the machines that are there and covered tought.

The Senator spoke about the organout all the machines that are there and covered tought.

The Senator spoke about the organout all the machines that are there and covered tought.

The Senator spoke about the organout all the machines that are there and covered tought.

The Senator spoke about the organout all the machines that are there and covered tought.

The Senator spoke about the organout all the machines that are there and covered tought.

The Senator spoke about the organout all the machines that are there and covered tought.

The Senator spoke about the organout all the machines that are there and covered tought.

The Senator spoke about the organout all the machines that are there and covered tought.

The Senator spoke about the organout all the machines that are there and covered tought.

The Senator spoke about the organout all the machines that are there and covered tought.

The Senator spoke about the organout all the machines that are there and covered tought.

The Senator spoke about the organout all the machines that are there and covered tought.

The Senator spoke about the organout all the machines that are there and covered tought.

The Senator spoke about the organout all the machines that are there and covered tought.

tor Weeks of Massachusetts). 'Does the Senator know the name of the attorney who worked out the legal problems of that consolidation?''

Senator Weeks: "No. Mr. President. I have not any information on that subject."

Senator Weeks: "The Senator from Senator Weeks: "The Senator from Senator Reed: "The Sen

tor know at what time Mr. Brahaels severed his connection with that concern as attorney or officer?"

Senator Weeks: "Mr. President, in that particular I have quoted what is a that particular I have that particu Senator Weeks: "Yes."

Senator Weeks: "Yes."

Senator Reed: "The reformer. I understand the Senator to say that he understood Mr. Brandeis had also drawn the leases which this company has been using."

Senator Weeks: "I have been informed senator weeks: "I have public record in relation to Mr. Brandei's association with the organization. As an attorney for the United Shoe company in 1995 he did appear for the company before the Legis. The soldiers reported the deluge had sweet employed by others than the Shoe Market weeks: "I have been informed senator weeks:

d oppose the confirmation of ague Mr. La Foliette or cerSenator Senator Reed: "The Senator spoke this morning of the allegation upon this morning of the allegation upon which the Government is now standing and furnishing information?"

Senator Reed: "The Senator spoke gating the litigation that is now pending and furnishing information?"

Senator Weeks: "I have no definite."

(2200 Beekman) and missing sections will be promptly forwarded if possible

100 DROWNED; TOWN WIPED OUT BY FLOOD

Cloudburst Adds New Disaster in California—Thousands in Peril.

SIXTY DAM VICTIMS; TROOPS TO THE RESCUE

Los Angeles, Cal., Jan. 29 (by wire less from San Diego).-Whole towns have been destroyed and more than 100 been sweeping this section during the last few days. Floods in the San Luis Rey Valley have cost at least as many lives as those taken in the Otay Valley

The town of Pasqual, forty miles north of here on the San Diego River, has been washed away by a cloudburst in the It is believed that 100 men, women and children perished. It is doubtful if the San Luis Rey Valley and the safety of thousands of residents for many miles

Rescuers from San Diego with auto trucks loaded with food and clothing to day reached the stricken valley. Fiftee been recovered. Only four were identi-

The survivors are those who heeded arly warnings and fled to the hills.

Relief work for the few who escaped s under way and a big sum already has een realized. The San Diego water upply is absolutely safe. There are snatched to death in the whirling flood. from him

ON QUICK REPLY Pierce Lines, Berlin Says,

Submarine Against Liners Is Feared by Officials.

HOSTILITIES TO ENSUE.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 29 .- Prompt acquiescence by Germany in the demands of tania case is absolutely necessary if the friendly relations between the two countries are to be continued.

No ultimatum has been given to Count von Bernstorff. Neither has it been specified that he shall present to Secretary of State Lansing on or before next Friday a memorandum from his tlement fixed by the United States. The first to the northwest of the Napoli farm, the German Ambassador received from concede in order to settle the dispute their bodies ever will be recovered, but Well be carried out to sea by the rushing night, after the President's return from A mighty volume of water swept down day the President and the Secretary conferred on these proposals and agreed that they were totally inadequate.

Monday afternoon the Ambassador the plan to escape the effect of that A hundred survivors of the Olay value, the plan being simply to add a ley disaster, where sixty persons were clause giving a right to terminate the swept away to their death before the clause indeed that I read luge wall of water that was sent tearthe United States be put in writing.

The Ambassador called again on the tion, but without an admission of lia-bility, and which did not provide for a disavowal. The proposition given the Ambassador by Secretary Lansing den admitted.

en Germany should give a definite answer, otherwise the "confidential nego-tiations" between the Secretary and the Ambassador would appear to be profit-

Explaining that it would take at least five and perhaps six days for the memorandum to reach Berlin and the reply be received, and expressing the belief the received, and expressing the belief the received. that his Government would want as many more days in which to reach a decision, the Ambassador said that Germany's reply could not be expected on or before next Friday. Thus, it is insisted, any time limit suggested came the insufficient German bombard cretary and the Ambassador would be

NO ULTIMATUM, Germans in Great Drive BUTU.S.INSISTS Make Big Gains in France WAR PERILNOW, and Capture Nearly Two Miles of Trenches.

FIERCEST OFFENSIVE IN WEST IN A YEAR

TEUTON CIRCLES FEAR Invaders Win at Three Points, Take Town, Make Many Prisoners.

Special Cable Despatch to THE SES London, Jan. 29 .- The German offenattack on the allied positions at Nieuport Government agreeing to the terms of set- points of the French line in Artois, the facts are these; A week ago to-day northeast of Neuville-Saint Vaast; the > of Frise with 1.093 yards of French renches to the south.

The prisoners taken comprised 237 officers and men at the Napoli farm and thirty-nine officers and men in the takfollowing day and was handed the mem-orandum rejecting the proposition of Germany, which offered to make repara-and which then returned to the German

The German official statement which ords these successes admits the cap-aeroplane south of Apremont. With regard to the French aerial attack on Freiburg on January 22 the statement says that only slight damage was caused and adds that one soldier and two civil-

12 KILLED, 30 INJURED, IN AIR RAID ON PARIS

Paris, Jan. 29.-Twelve persons were killed and thirty persons were injured by bombs dropped by Zeppelins which raided Paris to-night The number of Zeppelins engaged s not yet determined, but severa of the big dirigibles have been seen according to reports. As soon as word of the coming of the hostile airships was received in the capital large squadrons of aeroplanes were sent to check the raiders. The forts about Paris already are using their anti-aircraft guns. A number of explosions, a of bombs, are reported. The announcement of the raid caused the sounding of the fire clarms throughout the city and the op floors of all houses

The last Zeppelin raid on Paris took place early on the morning of Sunday, March 21, 1915. Two Zeppelins crossed over the heart of the ity from Courbevole over Neuilly and out over Clichy, dropping twenty-five bombs, which caused some slight damage and injured seven or eight persons.

The text of the Berlin statement fol-

To the northwest of the farm of enemy's trenches, taking prisoner 237 including one officer and capsition near Neuville recently taken by the Germans broke down, but the enemy succeeded in occupying the second mine crater. In the western section of Saint group of houses. South of Somme the Germans conquered the village of Frise and 1,000 yards of the position connected with it to the southward. The Germans took twelve officers and 927 French

Further to the south of Lihons a German reconnoitring detachment ad-vanced until it reached the second line of the enemy, took several prisoners and returned without loss to its forartillery and mine engagements.

On Combres Heights a French mine did only slight damage to the advanced German trenches. The enemy was forced to withdraw after making an attempt to occupy the crater. The enemy's losses were heavy. South of Aprement, to the east of Meuse, an enemy aeroplane was Only slight damage was done in the EXTRA DRAWINGROOM AND COMPARTMENT CARS OPERPARTMENT CARS TO FLORIDA.

Boahoard Florida Ltd. 2:16 P. M. Quickest.

Beat equipped Florida train. Inq. 118 B'way.

Boahoard Florida Ltd. 2:16 P. M. Quickest.

Beat quipped Florida train. Inq. 118 B'way.

After Drawingroom And Compartment Cars open.

EXTRA COMPARTMENT CARS OPERAVED ON "FLORDIA SPECIAL" TO PALM Sky." Reuched in through sleeping cars New York to Asheville via SOUTHERN RAILVaried For the SOUTHERN RAILAfter Dreakfast Mrs. Wilson with Lor.
N. Y. Office, 261 Fifth Ave. —Adv.

Grayson went for an hour's said male ling.

Grayson went for an hour's said male ling.

NATION FACES WILSON WARNS

New Dangers Make It Necessary That Country Prepare Itself.

AMERICA IS NOT AFRAID OF ANYBODY

People Counting on Him to Keep Peace and Nation's Honor Too.

TIME MAY COME WHEN HE CAN'T DO BOTH

President Warmly Received by Throngs in Pittsburg and Cleveland.

defence to-day in three speeches at Pitts-nation if possible.

"There are two the cally everybody who comes to the execu-tive office in Washington tells me," said the President. "They tell me that the counting upon you

"I should feel that I was

A KITCHEN CABINET 5TH AVE. SIDEWALK

THE ADMINISTRATE OF THE PARTY O